Triathlon

Miami Marine Stadium (Key Biscayne, FL)

Example Bike Course Option & Info – To Be Finalized Soon

RACE INFO:

Athletes will converge on Miami Marine Stadium for a Sprint Triathlon. The athletes will enjoy a protected salt water swim in Key Biscayne with bright buoys beckoning them back to shore. The swim course runs in a clockwise direction. In transition, they will have a spacious setting to prepare for the fast bike through Virginia Key & spectators can cheer on their athletes. The bike course is set against a Miami city skyline & a pristine view of the turquoise waters of Key Biscayne. Cyclists will have an added challenge of climbing the highest point in south Florida, with a 700 meter climb on the William Powell Bridge, commonly referred to as Rickenbacker Causeway Bridge.

After transition 2, runners will have a relatively shaded run on pavement & trails through the Australian Pines that line Virginia Key. The athletes will complete 1 lap of a very flat run course and get a nice view of the flora & fauna the park provides, as well as a view of the ocean on the turnaround. Spectators can cheer on the finishers outside the Miami Marine Stadium.

FORT LAUDERDALE CONVENTION CENTER

CONVENTION CENTER EXPANSION

The highly anticipated $1 billion Convention Center expansion project is underway. The all-new Greater Fort Lauderdale/Broward County Convention Center will be bigger and better with 1.2 million square feet of space.

Expansion highlights:

- An extension of the main Exhibit Hall for a total of 350,000 square feet of contiguous exhibit space.
- A new 65,000 sq. ft. ballroom facing the Intracoastal Waterway.
- An additional 50,000 sq. ft. of flexible meeting space to accommodate multiple events or convenient break-outs.
- An 800 room connecting upscale headquarter hotel operated by Omni Hotels.
- Multiple upgrades including forward-thinking technologies, innovative dining concepts, versatile pre-function space and modern décor that complements Greater Fort Lauderdale's waterfront destination.
- Iconic waterfront plaza with multiple group event spaces.
- Leadership in Energy & Environmental Design (LEED®) Gold-certified.
